

Through the prevention, intervention, and treatment of child abuse the Child Protection Center, Inc. (CPC) has been serving Sarasota and Desoto counties for the last 43+ years, bringing hope and healing to child abuse survivors!

We invite you to join us in bringing hope and healing to our community by becoming a member of the Butterfly Guild. This group of passionate young professionals advance the mission of CPC through volunteerism, advocacy, and philanthropy! Whether you are looking to volunteer with our organization or hold a committee or board seat one day, there is an opportunity for you to make an impact.

Join us!

The CPC Butterfly Guild membership is open to young professionals, aged 21-39, that live or work in Sarasota or Desoto County.

There is no cost associated with membership, and members are expected to advance the CPC mission in various ways. Butterfly Guild members are passionate about the work CPC achieves, are looking for community involvement opportunities, and are committed to being a leader in our region.

What can you expect?

- Quarterly meetings,
- monthly volunteer opportunities,
- discounted tickets to CPC events,
- exclusive Butterfly Guild connection events,
- leadership opportunities within CPC,
- & the chance to change lives, forever!

What is next?

Complete the form below and email it to Elizabeth K. Topp at ElizabethT@cpcsarasota.org. We will be in touch soon!

Name: _____ Preferred Name: _____ Pronouns: _____

E-mail: _____ Phone: _____

Address: _____ DOB: _____

Employer: _____ T-shirt Size: _____

Why do you want to join the CPC Butterfly Guild? _____

